FIDO

HE'S NOT JUST A ZOMBIE.
HE'S PART OF THE FAMILY.

Having won the war against the space-dust-activated zombies, we the living have put the dead to work as domestic servants. It's a carefree world for Carrie-Anne Moss and Dylan Baker's happy family, but young Timmy, even though he loves Billy Connolly, their occasionally hungry zombie, has his doubts.

Alan V. Iselin presents

FRANKENSTEIN MEETS THE SPACE MONSTER

Desperate Martians, seeking bikini-clad breeding stock to repopulate their planet, sabotage NASA's launches and raid beach parties. The secretly robotic astronaut, damaged and running amok, is our last hope. Filmed on location in Cocoa Beach and Puerto Rico with a soundtrack featuring the swingin' sounds of the Poets and the Distant Cousins.

NIGHT OF THE COMET

Valley Girls
Catherine Mary
Stewart & Kelli Maroney shall inherit the earth...
and the mall!

An after hours teenage makeout party coincides with the implementation of a the mall's new robotic security guards. Then lightning strikes. Bummer! Kelli Maroney stars as the new girl in town, Mary Woronov, Paul Bartel and Dick Miller stop by to pick up paychecks. Try to guess whose head will explode!

MINDWARP AN INFINITY OF TERROR and MORE!

MONKEYS

Sci-Fi Marathon Hall of Famer Terry Gilliam puts his own unique spin on the classic Chris Marker short LA JETTE. Brad Pitt, Madeline Stowe & time-travelling Bruce Willis try to navigate off a plague-ravaged future. The Army of the 12 Monkeys wants you!

SLITHER

It's a wormy-squirmy jamboree! David Cronenberg's THEY CAME FROM WITHIN meets Brian Yuzna's SOCIETY meets TREMORS in this small town alien invasion B-movie slugfest with all the pizzazz a modern special effects budget allows.

A SURPRISE SCIENCE FICTION CLASSIC

We'll also have a surprise which we're confident you'll enjoy. It won't be announced until it hits the big screen.

Also known as GALAXY OF TERROR, it's a Roger Corman-produced ALIEN-inspired cheapie with Erin Moran, Ray Walston, Robert Englund, Sid Haig and production design by James Cameron. A space rescue mission goes horribly awry as crew members are done in by their own worst nightmares... really disgusting nightmares.

KING DINOSAUR

There's a new planet in our solar system just begging to be visited. The two man, two woman expedition confront giant beasts, including lizards in makeup recycled from 1940's ONE MILLION B.C. and all the pre-1955 stock footage that always amusing low budget king Bert I. Gordon could muster. It's a nuclear blast!

STAR TREK THE MOTION PICTURE

Robert Wise brings the Enterprise to the big screen for the first time in 1979. Sit long and prosper?
